Blanchard, Calvin.
The life of Thomas Paine; mover of the "Declaration of independence;" secretary of foreign affairs under the first American Congress; member of the National convention of France; author of "Common sense," "The crisis," "Rights of man," "Age of reason," &c., &c.: the man, whose motto was, "The world is my country; to do good my religion." Embracing practical considerations on human rights; demonstrating that man tends irrepressibly to actual freedom; and showing a liberty-aim connection in the action of the world's three great author-heroes,—Rousseau, Paine, and Comte. By Calvin Blanchard. New York, D. M. Bennett, 1877.
